Died: Saturday, July 25, 2015

Jason Leroy Nickell, 53, of Galt MO, died Saturday, July 25, 2015 because of a vehicle collision with a deer near Galt, MO. He was the beloved husband of Sharon Baugher Nickell, who was critically injured in the accident.

Born January 30, 1962 near Browning, MO, he was the son of Jimmie and Alma Mills Nickell. He proudly served in the U. S. Army from 1985 to 1988 following graduation from high school in 1980. Jason worked at Farmland Foods in Milan for the past 13 years.

Those who were honored to know Jason remember his wry sense of humor. Some of his favorite hobbies and activities were traveling with Sharon as they discovered small craft stores and roamed garage sales. Jason enjoyed tinkering with small engines, hunting deer, fishing and gathering mushrooms. "Jason was a good friend and would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it" was a frequent tribute from friends and colleagues. Some of Jason's fondest memories include marrying his wife, Sharon, May 9, 1992, the birth of his grandchildren, supporting and celebrating their achievements, and preparing "Pappy's" Sunday breakfast.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his daughter, Jamie Eckert (Brian), grandchildren Darian, Quentin, and Lucas; mother, Alma Ellen Nickell; sisters Judy Greathouse (Leonard), JoAnn Asher, Jeanne Bauman (Steve), Joy Nickell (Carlos Diaz), and brothers James Nickell (Lillian), Jeff Nickell, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Jason was preceded in death by his father Jimmie Buster Nickell, nephew Jimmie Junior Tyrrell, brother John Dail Nickell, sister Jan Ellen Tyrrell and brother-in-law Gary Tyrrell, father-in-law Coda Baugher, and mother-in-law Ruby Corbin Baugher.
