Kathleen Anne Vlcej

27 Dec 1944 - 28 November 2013

Kathy Vlcej was called home on Thanksgiving morning to attend a feast prepared by our Father. She died at home in the company of her loving husband and youngest son.

Kathy hailed from South Amboy, New Jersey where she devoted herself to so many others as a loving wife, a nurturing mother of two sons, as a Registered Nurse, and as an active parishioner at St Anne's in Keansburg, NJ.

In retirement, Kathy and her husband relocated to Pasadena MD, where she enjoyed, flower gardening and bird watching, crochet, needlepoint, and all things crafty, reading, crossword puzzles, and mostly the special time with her sons and grandchildren, and her continued faith and church ministries as a parishioner at St Jane Frances.
