

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, October 1, 1974

Died: Friday, May 2, 2014

Bryan Daniel Fauber Jaquay, age 39, a resident of Dundalk for four years, and previously of Montgomery, WV, Alexandria, VA, Rockville, MD, and Baltimore County, died of a heart attack on May 2, 2014 in Baltimore.

He was born on October 1, 1974, in Wheeling, WV, to Rebecca and Joseph Jaquay. Growing up he received his West Virginia education; graduated from Wheaton High School; and studied philosophy just like his master Bruce Lee. He worked as a retail manager, and as a superhero father, and tirelessly worked at being the love of Deb's life. A member of the Caps Fan Club, he also enjoyed video games, reading, music, singing, kiting, skiing, the Renn Faire, movies, Batman, Wolverine, comics, MMA/UFC, StarWars, Harley Davidson motorcycles, Vikings, history, animals, pictures, and candy.

Service Summary

Visitation

7:00 PM to 8:00 PM, Fri May 09, 2014

G. J. Gonce Funeral Home, P.A.

169 Riviera Drive
Pasadena, MD 21122

Memorial Service

8:00 PM Fri May 09, 2014

G. J. Gonce Funeral Home, P.A.

169 Riviera Drive
Pasadena, MD 21122

Bryan is survived by his beloved wife Deb Jaquay; his three daughters: Harley, Becca, and Anna; his son Aidan; his mother and father Becky and Joey; his sister Sarah and her husband Gray, and their daughter Kayla; his brother Todd; and Lora Pumphrey.

Family invites friends to visit at the Gregory J. Gonce Funeral Home, PA, 169 Riviera Drive, Pasadena, on Friday from 7 to 8 PM. His Memorial Service will be held immediately following at 8 PM, when those who wish may tell stories and share memories of Bryan. Feel free to express your condolences here as well, and if you would like to donate to the Jaquay family, your offerings would be appreciated.