

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, December 15, 1936

Died: Saturday, June 28, 2014

Barbara Lee Insley, age 77, a lifetime resident of Pasadena, died on June 28, 2014 in Zeeland, Michigan after suffering from cancer for 13 months.

She was born on December 15, 1936, in Towson; her parents the late Dolores and Richard Hepting; and graduated from Glen Burnie High School. She worked as a bank teller for the Riviera Beach branch of Maryland National Bank/Nations Bank, and volunteered her time at Baltimore Washington Medical Center. Barbara enjoyed cruising with friends, playing card games for hours, travelling to Michigan to visit her son and his family, and treating them to Disney World trips, and spoiling her granddaughters Annie and Kami.

Along with her parents, she is preceded in death by her beloved husband of fifty six and a half years: Roy James Insley.

Barbara is survived by her son: Gregg James Insley and his wife Lori; two granddaughters: Annie and Kami, all of Zeeland, Michigan; her two brothers: Douglas Hepting and his wife Yvonne, of Allyn, Washington, and Gary Hepting and his wife Cindy, of Oregon City, Oregon; her two sisters: Marlene Hepting, of Spring, Texas, and Deborah Taylor and her husband Glenn, of Purcellville, Virginia; and her sister in law Fay Insley Brandt, of Baltimore.

Family requests friends visit on Friday from 2 to 4 PM and 6 to 8 PM at the Gregory J. Gonce Funeral Home, PA, 169 Riviera Drive, Pasadena. Her funeral service will be held on Saturday at 12:30 PM. Feel free to express your condolences here as well.
