Swift, Margaret Eleanor

On February 17, 2017 Margaret E. "Boots" Swift passed away at age 83. Born on March 22, 1933, Margaret was daughter of the late John and Mamie Sipes, and was raised in the Brooklyn area of Baltimore. She married her husband, the late Talbert W. Swift Jr. in 1953, and later worked for 15 years as a Senior Clerk for the Maryland State Motor Fuel Tax Department. Boots, as she was lovingly called was very fond of the art of Ceramics. This hobby began in her basement and expanded into her own Ceramic shop in Pasadena during the 1980s. Ice Cream and James Patterson novels were a few of her favorite things, along with travel and the Beach. Margaret and her husband retired to Florida for a time because of their love of the ocean.
