

Obituary

Born: Monday, April 26, 1937

Died: Monday, January 4, 2016

Enedina "Nina" Dominguez, age 78, a resident of Pasadena, and previously of El Paso, Texas, passed on January 4, 2016 at her home.

She was born on April 26, 1937, in El Paso, to the late Guadalupe and Jesus Montoya. Nina graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in El Paso in 1956. She has resided in Pasadena, MD for the past 45 years, where she worked as a USPS letter carrier for over 15 years. She was an avid walker and traveled the world (including Japan, Korea, and throughout Europe) with her walking clubs. She was very dedicated to her only surviving grandchild, Mariana. She enjoyed bowling, walking and hiking, traveling, line-dancing, and spending time with friends.
