

Obituary

Born: Saturday, December 5, 1959

Died: Sunday, May 26, 2013

Annette L. Peacock, age 53, a resident of Halethorpe for 26 years, and formerly of Glen Burnie, died at her home on May 26, 2013 after a nine year illness.

She was born on December 5, 1959, in Baltimore, to the late Mary and Bernard Travers. After graduating from Northeast High School in Pasadena, she worked most recently as a customer service representative for the Home Depot Corporation. Annette enjoyed the simple things in life: going to the movies, visiting Myrtle Beach and just spending time with her family.

Annette is survived by her beloved husband of 27 years: Robert (Bob) Peacock; her two loving daughters: Autumn Travers Santos, of Elkton, and Emily Peacock, of Halethorpe; two brothers: Bernard Travers, of Oxnard, California, and Anthony Travers, of Glen Burnie; two sisters: Maria Kelly, of Glen Burnie, and Chrissy Parks, of Brooklyn; and her one grandchild.

Visitation will be held at the Gregory J. Gonce Funeral Home, PA, 169 Riviera Drive, Pasadena, on Saturday from 3 to 5 PM and 7 to 9 PM. Funeral services will take place on Saturday at 7:30 PM, during the evening visitation. Feel free to express your condolences here as well.
