

Obituary

Born: Friday, June 5, 1953

Died: Saturday, December 16, 2017

Sally Ann Drane, age 64, a lifelong resident of Pasadena, passed away on December 16, 2017.

She was born on June 5, 1953, in Baltimore, to the late Dorothy Rosalind and George Eugene Stern. A graduate of Northeast High School, she worked for Dr. Howard Woolf as an office manager for many years. During her free time, she enjoyed crocheting, watching the Hallmark channel, eating candy, gardening, spoiling Jack and the kids, and trips to Ocean City with the girls.

Along with her parents, Sally is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 37 years: Lawrence Daniel Drane; and her sister Dottie Thomas.

She is survived by her loving daughter Merci Fitzgerald, of Glen Burnie; her devoted son Todd Drane, of Pasadena; her brother George Eugene Stern, Jr., of Baltimore; and many nieces and nephews.
