

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, November 17, 1992

Died: Friday, November 25, 2011

Jeffrey Ryan Giles, 19, a resident of Linthicum for 10 years, and previously of Pasadena, died of multiple injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Ellicott City on November 25, 2011.

He was born on November 17, 1992, in Baltimore, and attended North County High School. For two years he worked as a carpenter for A & M Diversified Company. He enjoyed playing his guitar, singing, driving with friends, making people laugh with Jim Carey impressions, riding and fixing BMX bikes, helping others, climbing high places, going to far away places and telling others about Jesus.

He is survived by his mother and step father: Karen L. and David J. Cole, of Linthicum; his father and step mother: Kevin Giles, of Thurmont, and Monica Gorman, of Pasadena; brother Caleb Cole, of Linthicum; sister Brittney Giles, of Pasadena; step sister Eden Cole, of Linthicum; grandparents Mary Jane Wagner, of Pasadena, and Ralph H. Wagner, of Brooklyn, and Patricia Giles, of Stevensville, and Curtis Giles, of Pasadena.

A Memorial Homegoing will be celebrated Wednesday at the Heritage Community Church, 8146 Quarterfield Rd, Severn, at 10 AM, with Pastor Ed Spuler officiating. Those who wish may contribute to Living Waters International in Jeffrey's name at 1-877-594-4426.
