

Obituary

Born: Saturday, September 3, 1927

Died: Thursday, May 10, 2018

William H. Ogilvie, "Pop" age 90, a resident of Glen Burnie for 8 years, passed away at Hospice of the Chesapeake on May 10, 2018, after an eight month illness.

He was born on September 3, 1927, in Cumberland, to the late Mary Elizabeth and David Thane Ogilvie. After graduating from Allegany High School, he entered the US Army, serving as a Corporal in the European Theatre of Operations until March of 1947. After the military, he worked as a carpenter in heavy construction; most recently as a superintendent for the Ceco Steel Corporation. He was a lifetime member of the Mid Atlantic Carpenters Local 132, and during his free time he loved to hunt and fish, play golf, and take care of his grandchildren.
