

Obituary

Born: Wednesday, July 18, 1973

Died: Tuesday, August 29, 2017

Ronald J. Pieszala, 44, of Exeter, passed away unexpectedly on August 29, 2017 at his home.

Born in Kingston, he was the son of Doris Meschini Pieszala Dabbieri, Exeter and the late Ronald Pieszala.

He was a graduate of West Side Vo-Tech School, and worked for Pikes Creek Construction as a heavy equipment operator, and loved fishing, time with his daughter, nature and music.

May the Lord watch and keep you forever in Peace. The addiction that has robbed you of so many years of your life has ended.

I was the first to hold you at birth and the last to ever hold you at your death.

The struggle was real. Even thou you dropped to your knees and prayed to our Lord each day, the demons inside would not come out. They think they won because they took your body, but God will forever have your soul.

We all will love you always, my great beautiful son and I will carry you forever in my heart until we meet again. Love, Mama Dukes, sister Amy, your first daughter and godchild, niece Giana, James and baby Saige.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Harry and Mary Meschini, and paternal grandparents, Andrew and Mary Pieszala.

Surviving in addition to his mother, Doris, are a daughter Ava Marie Pieszala, Aaronsburg Pa. and a sister Amy Pieszala, Exeter, niece Giana Rosengrant and great niece Saige Alexis Rodda.

A memorial mass will be held on Wednesday at 10am at St. Barbara Parish in St. Anthony of Padua Church, 224 Memorial St., Exeter.

Relatives and friends may share their condolences with the family at the church from 9am until time of the Mass on Wednesday.
