Vic could always be seen in his yard and garden. His friends called him “Farmer Vic.” He loved fishing and was a life long avid fan of the Philadelphia Phillies and the Philadelphia Eagles.

Most of all, Vic loved his family and their gatherings for holidays and throughout the year. He will be missed and loved always by his wife, companion and caretaker, the former Johanna Stofko. Vic and Johanna celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary in May 2019.

Surviving in addition to his wife Johanna are his children: his daughter Dianne and her husband Charles D’Ardenne and their children, Charles D’Ardenne and Dr. Catherine D’Ardenne; son Michael and his wife Kristen; brother Eugene Malinowski, along with nieces and nephews.
