Sharon loved spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren. She enjoyed cooking and was known for her amazing chocolate salad oil cake, homemade noodles, and ham and beans. Sharon was an avid Green Bay Packer fan, and never missed watching a game. In her past time, she loved fishing, watching Gun Smoke, reading true crime books, and collecting owl memorabilia. Some of her most treasured and memorable moments was attending grand children's events, Star Spangled Country Music celebrations, and a special trip to the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tennessee.

She was a very hard worker, and worked many years outside of the home at Citgo, Advance Transformer, Southwest Technical College in food service, and Udder Brothers Creamery. One of her major accomplishments was earning an Associate's Degree in Child Care Development.

Sharon was an amazing, caring, and energetic person who was selfless in everything she did. She will be greatly missed by her family.
