

Obituary

Died: Friday, February 23, 2018

The heavens gained an angel on Friday February 23, 2018 when Guy Kolman passed on in a truck collision. I hope the angels are ready for him! Guy was a prankster, a fun loving, great person. He lit up the room with his big personality and made everyone feel they were a part of his family. You were guaranteed a smile and a laugh when around Guy, his heart was as big as his personality. Everybody had a friend in Guy and if Guy knew you, you were loved.

Guy passed away doing what he did best; driving semi. He lived and died driving truck. Very rarely did he miss a day of work, the only time he did was when he had major health events happen. He was a dedicated, loyal man who took his work and love for his family seriously. Guy was the poster boy of dropping everything to help family and friends and fiercely loving them all.
