He was preceded in death by his parents and infant children, Steven and David. As his professional career progressed, Larry and Marilyn relocated to several US cities: New Albany Indiana, Denver Colorado, Redlands California, Scottsdale Arizona, and Keller Texas. When it came time for retirement, Larry & Marilyn chose to settle back in Ohio close to their childhood hometown. Whether it was morning coffee with the boys at the Shell station, lunch at the Eaton Place with Marilyn, or dinner with the Puvogel's, he was always interested in what was important to others; quite often just remembering past experiences and catching up with friends & family. He was a devoted and loving husband and father. He enjoyed a successful and fruitful career, with his family always his top priority. Larry enjoyed golfing, working around the house, gardening with his wife, and spending quality time with family and friends. He will be greatly missed by all who loved him.
